If the "honest dollar" could betray its feelings, it would undoubtedly blush at the company it is often found in.

"Welcome, Wa!" cries the Syracuse Herald. - Likewise, welcome woe, for those who will have to satisfy his curiosity.

At present the Society for the Suppression of Useless Noises is having very little trouble with Mr. Parkhurst in New York.

The party who sent out that story about the Pennsylvania dog with an artificial tail probably considers himself something of a wag.

The American fleet ought to be in the Pacific ocean long before the Japanese get over their good-natured fit brought on by Mr. Taft's visit.

Occasionally the fool killer's labors are lightened by the man who loves mushrooms and doesn't know how to tell them from toadstools.

Since Pittsburgh has been overrun with snails it has been making much more fuss than Philadelphia, where that condition prevails all year round.

The New York saloonkeeper who bought a painting of Pierpont Morgan for $25 must have come to the conclusion that a good look at it will drive his patrons to drink.

"I am a fool," commented a Steubenville, Ohio, man, after killing his bosom friend in a saloon quarrel. Since he admits it, his lawyers will find it much easier to prove it.

A Chicago man who poured kerosene over a rat and set it on fire was fined $3 the other day. In that town a man who kills a human being is running the risk of being fined at least a ten spot.

According to the statisticians, there are 6,397 different kinds of intoxicating drinks used in this world. And each one probably develops a different kind of headache for the morning after.

In one of the current magazines a writer has an article on "How I Feel When Up in the Air." It ought to prove of special interest to Mr. Fairbanks since the cocktail episode.

Someone has expressed the opinion that Senator Beveridge's wife will make him a presidential possibility. Undoubtedly she is a talented lady, but she has a big job of altering on her hands.

Senator Cullom is sure that Speaker Cannon will be the choice of the republicans if President Roosevelt will only step aside. At present, however, Mr. Roosevelt seems disposed only to side-step all talk on the subject.

Miss Weeks, who has inspected the housing conditions on the canal zone, says bedbugs, cockroaches, fleas and rats are everywhere. Whatever else they may lack, they seem to have all the discomforts of home, all right.

One of the critical scribes reporting the president's reception at St. Louis makes a column of the circumstance that when the principal toast to the distinguished guest was proposed in champagne at the luncheon all except the president rose to their feet and quaffed the sparkling wine, while he kept his seat and didn't co-incidentally join in the potation. Really! What is the ordinary rule when one's health is drunk? Was this the scribe's first dinner?

The spirit of federation has taken possession of attorneys general of the states, and they have formed a national association. Moreover, they have expressed in formal resolution, and intend to make known to the president and to congress, their displeasure with the present tendency and habit of federal circuit courts to interfere in litigation affecting the state control of corporations. Be it noted that Mr. Malone of conservative Massachusetts joined with western and southern men in this demand. This issue is a live one in New York city now. Attorney General Jackson has applied for receivers of traction companies which have already been placed in the hands of receivers by the federal court.

Society

Fraternal Brotherhood Social
The members of the Fraternal Brotherhood enjoyed a delightful social at Union hall on Wednesday night. Games and music were the chief features. A delightful luncheon was served at an appropriate hour. The Mesdames Fleming, Scott, Paxton and Kelsey acted as hostesses and are entitled to much of the credit for the pleasures of the evening.

Pretty Home Wedding
On Monday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Blight, North Globe, Elijah Phillips and Miss Beatrix Jeffrey were united in marriage. Rev. Edwin F. Decker of the First M. E. church officiating. The parlors were beautifully decorated for the occasion. After the ceremony refreshments were served.

Those who witnessed the impressive ceremony were: Mr. and Mrs. Sam Blight and children, Minnie and Willie; Miss Ethel Hampton, William Jose, Mrs. Bowden and daughter, Mrs. Fred Willis and daughter, Percie, Frederick Richards, John Arthur, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lee, Ernest Lee, Ernest Kinsman, Mr. and Mrs. A. ## AMUSEMENTS

At the Alexander
Two packed houses saw the opening of vaudeville at this popular theater last evening and without any doubt "The Dudes" McCarthy & Doyle are as good comedians as have ever been seen here. McCarthy brought down the house with his "Kube" act and wooden shoe dancing. The rest of the program and pictures are as good as have ever been in Globe, and taken all around is by far the best show of its kind that the theater going people of Globe has had the pleasure of seeing. McCarthy & Doyle will fill a week's engagement with the Alexander.

At the Iris
"The Child's Reformatory" is a beautiful moving picture which delighted the audience who came to see the change of program at the Iris last night.

Lightning Sketches is the best trick picture yet shown at this house. "The Legless Runner" and "Chasing a Motorist" are very funny and kept the crowd in an uproar from start to finish.

Billy Cummings sang a beautiful illustrated song and for his specialty he sings the Toreador's song from "Carmen" and a comic song for an encore number. He scored a big hit as usual. The show is above the average and well worth seeing.
